

HOMESCHOOLING your STRUGGLING LEARNER

a new book by Kathy Kuhl

Whether you homeschool, are considering it, or just want to help your child after school...

Homeschooling Your Struggling Learner helps you teach your child at home. Kathy Kuhl homeschooled her struggling learner for 4th through 12th grades. After he graduated, she interviewed 64 homeschoolers with children with different learning problems, including autism, learning disabilities, AD/HD, and other conditions. She distills their wisdom while conveying her own experience and insights.

“A wonderful resource for anyone who is new to home education, home educators new to special needs, and veteran home schoolers with a special needs child looking for fresh ideas.”

— Kim Ashby, founder and president of the board of directors of GIFTSNC, Inc.; homeschooling mom to three special learners.

“Her scope of knowledge, sensitivity to the questions and needs of parents ..., and list of resources are invaluable to any parent who home schools their child.”

— Larry B. Silver, M.D., author of The Misunderstood Child.

“Don’t homeschool your child without absorbing the wisdom in this well-written and extremely helpful guide.”

— Mel Levine, M.D., author of A Mind at a Time

“Anyone who lives or works with a struggling learner will find many a valuable nugget to aid in their work with these children.”

— Barbara D. Ingersoll, Ph.D., author of Your Hyperactive Child and Attention Deficit Disorder and Learning Disabilities

“Kathy’s experience, wisdom and knowledgeable advice will be of immeasurable assistance and comfort for you.”

— Richard D. Lavoie, M.Ed., M.A., author of It’s So Much Work To Be Your Friend and Motivation Breakthrough; producer of The F.A.T. City Video.

“Kathy Kuhl has compiled a wealth of information; a must-read for most, if not all, homeschooling parents. She can talk the talk because she has walked the walk. Don’t homeschool without this book.”

— Theresa Powell, veteran special education teacher and retired homeschool parent.
